Agenda Items

A. Community Matters

Lauren Harris

1. Connect Five – Why are our play sessions being cut short?
2. Baradine Park – safety concerns about numerous entry/exit points
3. Baradine Pool – Why has the opening been delayed? Are schools guaranteed a lifeguard for their school bookings?

Liz Cutts

4. Request for security gates installed at the entrances to the Baradine Lions Park to allow secure play for families with children;
5. Establishment of a free gutter-cleaning service by Warrumbungle Shire Council to older residents;
6. Concrete wheel stops placed in Wellington Street to ensure parking vehicles come safely to a stop within the correct specified distance to kerb and posts, protecting both cars and property.
7. Update on the current shire-wide heritage trail project being undertaken by Council's heritage advisor and how Baradine specifically fits into the plan.
8. Description of the Baradine specific projects included in the recent applications by Council to the Stronger Country Communities Fund - Warrumbungle Shire Swimming Pool Upgrades; Warrumbungle Shire Sporting Facility Upgrade; Warrumbungle Shire Children's Playground Upgrades.
