

1. Purpose

This policy is to ensure Warrumbungle Shire Council ('Council') implements the 10 NSW Child Safe Standards in accordance with Children's Guardian Amendment (Child Safe Scheme) Bill 2021. It also ensures Council is compliant with NSW child protection legislation, including mandatory reporting, recruitment, and responding to allegations against staff involving children and young people.

2. Objectives

To articulate the professional and legal obligations of Council staff in relation to child protection.

To ensure Council implements procedures for the prompt and confidential response to all allegations against Council staff, volunteers, students, and persons undertaking work experience and contractors/suppliers where a child or young person is involved.

To promote the health, safety, welfare and wellbeing of children and young people.

To ensure that Council provides a safe environment for children and young people whilst on Council premises and utilising Council services.

To ensure that Council is implementing best practice approaches to child protection, and in this regard is responding to recommendations from the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse (2017) that affect Local Government.

3. Scope

This policy applies to all Council staff, contractors and subcontractors, work experience participants, volunteers, students on placement and facility hirers. Children's Services staff are subject to their own Child Protection Policy.

5. Definitions

Term	Definition
Abuse	A term used to refer to different types of harm or maltreatment. In this document it refers to types of harm or maltreatment that children and young people experience, including; physical harm, sexual assault, exposure to domestic violence, psychological harm and prenatal risks.
Child	A person who is under the age of 16 years
Child Protection	Is defined as any measure taken to safeguard children from abuse or harm.
Child-related role/employment	Is defined as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • work for, or in connection with, a specific, child-related role, as defined in the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act and Regulation, where that work involves direct contact by the worker with a child or children and that contact is a usual part of and more than incidental to the work; • work that involves access to confidential records or information about children or young people; • Council's Principal Officer, that being the General Manager of Warrumbungle Shire Council, or any officer acting in that role from time-to-time.
Child-Safe Organisation	An organisation in which child safety is embedded in planning, policy and practices and where the voices of children and young people are valued and actioned.
DCJ	The NSW Department of Communities and Justice. DCJ is the NSW Government agency responsible for the care and protection of children and young people.
Mandatory Reporters	People who deliver services, wholly or partly, to children as part of their paid or professional work. This is regulated by the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998. This includes, but is not limited to, professionals working in: health care; welfare; education; children's services; residential services; and, law enforcement.
MRG	Mandatory Reporter Guide. The MRG is a decision-making tool to assist Mandatory Reporters to help determine how the suspected risk of significant harm of a child or young person is reported.
Neglect	A term used to refer to a pattern characterised when a parent or caregiver cannot regularly provide a child or young person the basic requirements for his or her growth and development such as food, clothing, shelter, medical and dental care, adequate supervision and adequate parenting and care.

Risk of Significant Harm	Concern/s about a child or young person that are sufficiently serious to warrant a response by a statutory authority irrespective of a family's consent. It is something that is not minor or trivial and that may be reasonably expected to produce a substantial and demonstrably adverse impact on the child or young person's safety, welfare or wellbeing. In addition, it can result from a single act or omission or an accumulation of these. Risk of significant harm is the NSW threshold to report child protection concerns to DCJ via the Child Protection Helpline
WWCC	Working with Children Check. The WWCC is a requirement for anyone who works or volunteers in child-related work in NSW. The check provides either clearance to work with children for five years, or a bar against working with children.
Young Person	A young person can be defined in a variety of ways depending on the context. For the purpose of this Policy a young person is a person who is over the age of 16 years but under the age of 18 years.
