"The next step will be for the new councillors to attend the Extraordinary Meeting of Council that has been called for 6 January 2022 at 5:00pm in Coonabarabran, where a Mayoral Election can take place," said Warrumbungle Shire Council, General Manager, Roger Bailey.

"The newly elected councillors are also required to first take an oath or affirmation at or prior to the Extraordinary Council Meeting in January 2022, as well as deal with other matters."

"The Executive Services team has been working to make the transition for the newly elected body as seamless as possible, and we have a comprehensive induction program planned for the new and returning councillors.
