Australia Day Awards 2023

On Australia Day 2023 communities across the Warrumbungle local government area came together to “Reflect, Respect and Celebrate” what’s great about our country, our local communities and some outstanding local achievers.

Councillors joined community members and the visiting Australia Day Ambassadors at events across the local government area. Warrumbungle Shire Council Mayor, Councillor Ambrose Doolan, attended events in Binnaway, Baradine and Coonabarabran.

“It was great to attend some of the local events and celebrate Australia Day with so many people in our communities”, said Cr Doolan. “As part of the celebrations, I and the other councillors were pleased to present some very worthy recipients with Warrumbungle Shire Council Australia Day Awards for 2023.”

Cr Doolan said, “We had many high-quality nominations for this year’s awards and the Selection Committee was challenged in making the final choices.”

The recipients of the 2023 Warrumbungle Shire Council Australia Day Awards were:

Citizen of the Year

Rhonda Jewiss

Young Citizen of the Year

Amelia Hadfield and Lachlan Cook

Senior Citizen of the Year

Robert Cox

Young Sportsperson of the Year

Siarne Davis

Sportsperson of the Year

Madeline Wilson

Community Event of the Year

2022 Baradine Debutante Ball

Cultural Achievement Award

Michael Armstrong

Young Environmental Citizen of the Year

Coonabarabran High School Year 10 Environmental scientists

“These awards are a great opportunity to celebrate the things we most value about our local communities and recognise people for their outstanding achievements and contributions. I would like to take this opportunity to again congratulate not only the award recipients but all the nominees,” concluded Cr Doolan.
